

Coaching Staff

Katie Woods
Head Coach, American University
Camp Director

In her second season at the helm of the American University women's lacrosse program, Woods led the team to the Patriot League Championship game in 2007.

Woods came to American after spending the two seasons as an assistant coach at Brown University. At Brown she coached the offensive unit and assisted in coaching the goalkeepers. Woods oversaw the recruiting operations for all prospective student-athletes.

Katie Leland
Assistant Coach, American University
Assistant Camp Director

In her second season with the American University women's lacrosse team, Leland kicked off her collegiate coaching career in 2006.

Leland comes to AU from the University of New Hampshire as a three-time America East All-Conference first team member, a two-time All-American North Region first team member and a two-time IWLCA Academic All-American.

Camp Focus

Game On Lacrosse Camp offers a competitive, intense, yet fun environment. A college preparatory camp, sessions will be run like college practices with AU players running the drills and coaching. Morning sessions will be directed at skill improvement, afternoons will be small-sided play and tournaments while full-field games will be played in the evening.

Facilities

Camp will be held on the American University campus. Campers will play on our athletic fields including grass and astro turf. Campers will be housed in university dormitories.

Equipment

Each camper is responsible for their own stick, mouthguard and goggles. Please bring cleats/turfs and sneakers.

Additional Information

- A certified trainer will be on duty at all times.
- Every camper will be covered by a limited accident insurance policy, but the University, GAME ON and our staff assume no responsibility for accidents or illness.
