Class of 2008 Women's Lacrosse Players

DTDT

Grace Benavides

Position: Attack
College: Long Island University
Grace loves music and hanging out with friends.

#27

Bethany Shenberger

Position: Goalie
Started playing lacrosse in the 9th grade. She will attend Tennessee Wesleyan College (Division 2) where she plans to play lacrosse and will major in pre-health and biology. Her plans are to become a Dentist. Bethany received a full tuition paid academic scholarship.

She also helps with teaching the area young girls the game of lacrosse. In the fall she spent her Saturdays at Durham Academy teaching girls age 8-16 the position of a goalie.

AND in her spare time, Bethany loves to crochet and make jewelry.

#26

Lisa Cook

Position: Attack
Started playing lacrosse in the 9th grade. She will be attending NC State this fall and will major in Industrial and Systems Engineering.

Lisa enjoys laughing with friends, especially on the lacrosse team. She also enjoys music and dancing.

#11

Kelsey Taul

Position: Defense
This is Kelsey's first year playing lacrosse and she has thoroughly enjoyed it.

Kelsey will be attending UNC Wilmington this fall and plans to major in Nursing.

She has enjoyed meeting new friends over the past four years and has especially enjoyed PEPI class her senior year. Her favorite thing about her senior year is that she doesn't have a first period!

#2

Live. Laugh. Love.

Nicky Funari

Position: Defense
Started playing lacrosse just this year, but you would never know it. She started out in full speed and has done a great job for the team and has enjoyed it greatly.

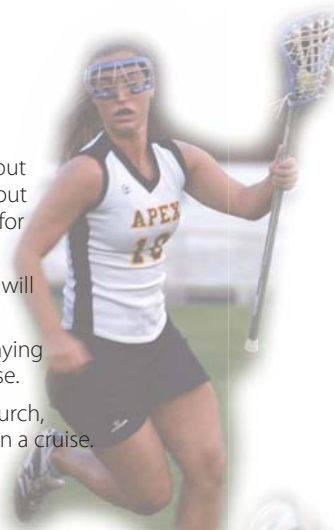

She will be attending ECU this fall and will major in Physical Therapy.

Nicky loves sports and has enjoyed playing basketball and soccer as well as lacrosse.

She also enjoys volunteering at her church, loves traveling, the beach and going on a cruise.

#10

Sasha Vedock

Position: Midfield
Started playing lacrosse in the 5th grade. Attending UNC-Charlotte this fall where she will study Pre-Veterinary Medicine.

Sasha has also played on the US Nationals team in her freshman, sophomore, and junior years. She has been invited to play in the 2008 Annual U-19 Prague Cup tournament in Prague, Czech Republic this summer. She is excited to represent the United States and to 'Wear the Red, White and Blue'.

Sasha enjoys working with younger girls, teaching them skills and teamwork. She has been working with them around the triangle; coaching ASA teams, summer camps, and fall camps.
